

UNITED REFINING COMPANY seeks a Distributed Control Systems (DCS) Technician. Duties include: assisting electricians in troubleshooting problems with analog or digital instrumentation, assisting controls engineer to resolve DCS problems, documenting existing equipment control configurations and settings, changing settings. The position will be the interface between the field instrument technician, refinery operations, and the engineering department. Experience and education with instruments and computer control systems is preferred. This position includes a very competitive wage and benefit package. Our facility is a 70,000 bpd medium-complexity petroleum refinery located in Warren, PA. Our website is: www.urb.com Resumes can be emailed to bkulinski@urb.com or sent to: P.O. Box 780 Warren, PA 16365 Attention: Human Resources EOE